Introducing World Badminton Day

World Badminton Day is an annual celebration that takes place on 5 July and provides an opportunity for the global badminton community to celebrate everything great about the game we all love.

Why you should get involved

World Badminton Day brings people and communities together to experience fun and inclusive badminton, through a variety of active, engaging, and innovative badminton events.

This year we want to celebrate and 'Raise A Racket' to World Badminton Day while encouraging friends, family and community to get involved!

Celebrating World Badminton Day

Organise a 'Raise A Racket' event

Join us and 'Raise a Racket' to celebrate World Badminton Day by organising exciting badminton events!

The BWF encourages all Continental Confederations, National Badminton Federations, schools, badminton clubs, universities, para sports clubs, Special Olympics programmes, badminton fans, NGOs and cities to host their own World Badminton Day activities in any way they can.

How to celebrate World Badminton Day

When hosting, your event could combine badminton with other themes like culture, music, food, art, and other sports to get people really excited! Here are some ideas to inspire you...

Shuttle Time Competitions

- Partner with local schools and community centres to offer Shuttle Time courses for free.
- Organise local Shuttle Time competitions with prizes for participants.

Learn more about Shuttle Time here.

World Record Attempts

- Organise attempts to break badminton-related world records, such as the longest continuous rally or largest number of players in a single match.
- Involve local communities and media to generate buzz and excitement.

Free Badminton Lessons

- Offer free lessons at local clubs, schools, and community centres.
- Collaborate with professional players to provide high-profile coaching sessions.

AirBadminton Activations

- Set up AirBadminton courts in parks, beaches, and other outdoor locations.
- Organise AirBadminton tournaments and friendly matches.

Exhibitions

- Arrange exhibition matches featuring professional players or local champions.
- Host demonstrations of different badminton techniques and styles.

Other

More examples:

- Come & try events
- Fun competitions
- Badminton festivals
- Coaching courses
- Community events

Where can World Badminton Day events take place?

Your event could take place in a whole range of locations (basically anywhere that could fit a badminton net!) Here's some ideas to get you started...

Parks

- Pop-Up Courts: Set up temporary badminton courts with portable nets and equipment.
- Community Tournaments:
 Organize friendly tournaments for families and local residents.
- Fitness Classes: Offer badmintonbased fitness sessions, combining cardio workouts with badminton drills.

Beaches

- Beach Badminton: Adapt
 AirBadminton for beach play,
 making it fun and challenging.
- Sunset Matches: Host evening matches with ambient lighting and music.
- Beach Festivals: Integrate badminton into larger beach festivals with food, music, and other sporting activities.

Iconic Landmarks

- High-Visibility Matches: Hold exhibition matches at iconic landmarks to attract media attention and public interest.
- Celebrity Matches: Invite local celebrities or influencers to play matches at well-known sites.
- Photographic Opportunities: Use landmarks as backdrops for promotional photography and social media content.

Schools/Universities

- Inter-School Tournaments:
 Organize competitions between different schools to foster friendly rivalry and sportsmanship.
- After-School Programs: Launch after-school badminton clubs to engage students in regular play.
- Campus Leagues: Establish badminton leagues within universities to promote ongoing competition.
- University Festivals: Incorporate badminton into university-wide festivals and events.

Workplaces

- Corporate Tournaments:

 Encourage companies to host inter-departmental badminton tournaments.
- Lunch Break Games: Provide equipment for employees to play during lunch breaks.
- Team Building: Use badminton as a team-building exercise to promote wellness and camaraderie.

Other

More examples:

- Green spaces
- Shopping malls
- Streets
- Stadiums
- Halls
- Tourist attractions

Who can participate?

Everyone is invited to join World Badminton Day! You can either attend a World Badminton Day event or even better... organise your own. Here are some examples of who can participate...

Youth Organisations

Groups such as the Scouts, Boys & Girls Clubs, and other youth-oriented organisations can host badminton clinics or competitions.

Corporate Organisations

Companies can organise teambuilding events, internal tournaments, or sponsor community badminton events.

Senior Centres

These groups can arrange badminton activities tailored for older adults, promoting fitness and social interaction.

What do you need to consider in your delivery plan?

This is where your idea comes to life! You'll need to answer some of the following questions to help plan your event as best as you can:

Where?

Where will your event take place?

When?

What date and time will your event happen?

Who?

- Who is responsible for what?
- Who would you like to invite?
- Who else could support your ambitions?

What?

- What type of activity are you offering?
- What equipment will you need to host your event?
- What is the plan if X happens?

How?

How are you going to promote your event and get people involved?

Athlete & Influencer Guidelines

How can you help

We would appreciate any World Badminton Day support.

This could be done through simply recording a call to action (CTA) for your social media channels.

Your video could mention one of two things...

World Badminton Day

Show your support for World Badminton Day and encourage your followers to 'Raise A Racket'.

'Raise A Racket' Competition

Promote the 'World Badminton Day Raise A Racket' competition, prize and how your followers can enter.

How to promote World Badminton Day

Create content to help us promote World Badminton Day and encourage more people to 'Raise A Racket'.

Filming guidelines

• Type: video

Format: vertical

Length: 15-30 seconds

· Content guidelines:

Start with a friendly greeting

 Clearly convey the main message of World Badminton Day (taking place on 5 July) - this year we want the community to 'Raise A Racket'

3. Finish with a CTA encouraging fans to 'Raise A Racket' by either playing Badminton or organising their own event

Visual Guidelines

- 1. Choose a clean and non-distracting background
- If possible, incorporate badminton-related elements (e.g., a badminton court, rackets, shuttlecocks)
- Centre yourself in the frame, making sure your face and upper body are visible
- 4. Add captions if you're able to do so

Audio Guidelines

Speak in your preferred language which your followers will understand

Key information

Here is some key information to include when talking to camera:

- World Badminton Day takes place on 5 July
- BWF would like the community to 'Raise A Racket' either on World Badminton Day or during the week commencing 1 July
- Fans can take part by simply picking up a racket and playing or by organising an event of their own with their friends/club/school/university etc.
- Upload any pictures or videos you capture including #RaiseARacket, #WorldBadmintonDay and tag @BWF in the caption

Use Poppins Black for titles & headings

Use Poppins Bold for subtitles

Use Poppins Light for any additional copy

Imagery

Images Selection

Images need to represent as diverse a range of people as possible.

Consider:

- elite & amateur athletes
- race & ethnicity
- gender
- age
- para-athletes

Tone:

- celebratory
- upbeat
- positive

Imagery

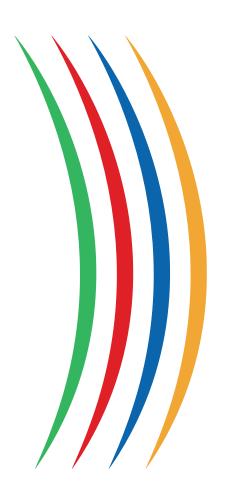

- Cut out the images to focus on the subject, allowing for more layout options and flexibility.
- Fade out the bottom of images when required to aid composition.
- Adjust the colour balance of images to create consistency.

Graphic elements

Stripe patterns

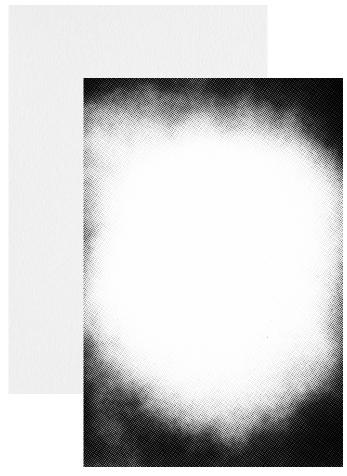

These stripe patterns offer a variety of creative possibilities. By experimenting with scale, cropping and rotation, you can achieve diverse and dynamic layouts.
